You love the classic lines of traditional home architecture, but you want to bring your personal style to the details. It's not about how much square footage you have, but how smartly it's designed. When we created The Saxton design, we explored the ways each room, each nook, and each space would be used. What would I store in this closet? Let's move it there. How would I move from the kitchen to the formal dining room as well as to the casual dining area? And how far would I want to walk for the first-floor powder room? It all matters. The Saxton reflects this careful thought with a smart layout across every square foot. The clerestory foyer and optional two story great room adds a wonderful airy spaciousness. The kitchen is designed for exceptional functionality without foregoing eye-pleasing style. The first-floor owners choice room makes for a productive office, study area, or maybe a playroom where the kids can be kids. Upstairs, The Saxton's 4 bedrooms give everyone a comfortable, roomy place of their own. The owner's suite is like a "thank you" giving you a bedroom that's large enough for a sitting area, an en suite bath with a soaking tub, and a
